34	Abdul Jalil	Balagudam, Abhaypuri, Bongaigaon	12/11/2018	NRC	This 35 year old from Balagudam, Abhaypuri in Bongaigaon allegedly killed himself using a machete because the names of his wife Halima and his 10 year old son Hamid did not appear in the NRC.
35	SamsulHoque	Bagariguri, Barpeta	14/11/2018	Wife D Voter	SamsulHoque of village Bagariguri under the Barpeta district took the extreme decision to take his own life on November 14, 2018, because his wife MalekaKhatun's name was not included in the final draft of NRC though his name was in it. Maleka, who was declared a doubtful voter in 2005, had won her case at a foreigners' tribunal in Barpeta. After winning the case, the couple went to the local election commissioner's office with the judgement order, yet the D Voter tag was not removed and her name was also missing from the NRC published on July 30, 2018.
36	Surendra Burman	Srirampur Colony, Kokrajhar	19/11/2018	D Voter	Surendra Barman, a young man of 27, had been not only tagged a 'D Voter', but had also been fighting his FT case for the last two years. His name had been

					missing from the final draft of the NRC that was published on July 30, 2018. A few years ago, Surendra Barman gravitated to Guwahati in search of work. He was detained by the Assam Police and a 'Foreigner' case was lodged against him. During the last two years, this young man, the sole breadwinner of his family was also burdened with having to run from pillar to post and dish out huge sums of money to prove his citizenship. With a seven-member family to support, this broke him. The body of Surendra Barman was recovered in the jungles close to a nearby village. The incident created a huge reaction among the local people and their various organizations. The All Assam Bengali Youth Students Federation (ABYSF) led a strong protest march that blocked the national highway no 31 on the same day. They shouted slogans against prime minister Narendra Modi and chief minister, Assam SarbanandaSonowal, for their false promises and the betrayal of Bengali Hindus of the state.
37	Monnas Ali	Kamarchuburi, Thelamara, Sonitpur	20/11/2018	NRC	The suicide of Monnas Ali (65) of Kamarchuburi village under the Thelamara police station in the Sonitpur District shook the local population. Monnas Ali took his life because his name did not appear in the final draft NRC. Ali, the head and only earning member of the family of 10 persons was quite depressed since the publication of the final draft NRC. Though the name of his father Sukur Ali is present in the NRC of 1951 and also in the Voters list of 1966 and 1971, the name of Monnas Ali has been dropped from the final draft NRC.
